Wigington-Horne.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ROCKY MOUNT, VA., June 17.—One of the prettiest weddings seen in Rocky Mount for a long time was celebrated in Scott Memorial Church Wednesday morning, when Miss Kansas L. Horne became the bride of Mr. W. L. Wigington, of Quinter, Kansas.

The pretty church was tastefully decorated for the happy event with palms and ferns, intermingled with hyacinths, and soft, shaded candles, gleaming from silver and gold candlesticks, shed a mellow glow over the whole scene.

Mrs. E. W. Saunders presided at the organ, as the bridal party entered the church. Rev. A. L. Franklin was the celebrant.

The four bridesmaids—Misses Mabel Montgomery, Katie St. Clair and Garnette Wigington, of Rocky Mount, and Ethelene Smith, of Roanoke—were daintily attired in white French mull, and carried bouquets of ferns, tied with white mulline. The matron of honor, Mrs. W. D. Baldwin, wore blue mull with black picture hat, and carried American Beauty roses. Miss Corrie Horne, the maid of honor, wore a costume of pink silk with black picture hat.

The bride wore a handsome traveling costume of dark blue chiffon cloth with dark blue hat, and carried a shower bouquet of asparagus ferns and lilies of the valley. She was given away by her brother, Mr. George T. Horne, of Rocky Mount. The groom entered upon the arm of his best man, Mrs. George Wigington, of Bedford City. The ushers were Messrs. Walter St. Clair and Walter White, of Rocky Mount.

After the ceremony the happy couple left for their Western home, amid the congratulations and good wishes of their friends.

The groom is a prosperous grain broker, who left the county several years ago, and has since made his home in Kansas.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents. The out-of-town guests for the occasion were Misses Ethelene Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Baldwin, Mr. John Wigington and Dr. D. P. Smith, of Hot Springs, Ark.; Mr. George Wigington, of Bedford City; Mrs. Erastus Payne, Misses Annie Price and Clara Ferguson, of Salem, and Mr. J. L. Wigington, and Miss Wigington, of Greensville.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

The bridesmaids and groomsmen were Misses Kathleen Price, of Salem; Mary Frazier, of Atlanta; Evelyn Hanes, of Vinton, and Miss Annie Garry, of this city; Messrs. Carey Blain, of Louisville; E. Shuffelbarger, of Burkeville; John Matthews, and David Moore, of Roanoke.

The church was crowded with friends of the bride. A reception followed at the home of the bride's sister, after which the couple left on a Northern trip.

Johnston-Wilson.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, VA., June 18.—St. Luke's Episcopal Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding to-night, when Miss Annie O'Connor Wilson, the daughter of Mr. George Wilson, of Williamsburg, became the bride of Robert Simpson Johnston, the Rev. David H. Howard, rector, officiating.

Mrs. R. Spencer Douglas acted as matron of honor. She is the sister of the bride. The church was attractively decorated. Professor A. F. Koerner rendered the wedding march.

The groomsmen were Mr. Garnett Jordan, Mr. Stuart Pratt, of New York City; Mr. Arthur Mills, of South Carolina; Mr. W. W. Old, Jr., of Mr. C. Wiley Grandy, Jr., and Dr. Robert L. Payne, Jr. The groom is the son of Mr. Robert Johnston, of the Board of Control.

Following the ceremony the bride and attendants were entertained at the Fairfax Avenue residence of the bride's parents at an informal reception. The wedding trip will include many places of interest in the North.

Ellis-Phillips.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, VA., June 18.—Yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock a wedding of exceptional beauty was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Phillips, No. 315 Court Street, when their daughter, Miss Ruth Sherwood Phillips, became the bride of Mr. Weldon Thompson Ellis. The entire decorations were a beautiful blending of green and white. Masses of ferns, white sweet peas, filled the mantels, where taller palms were arranged about the center. In one corner beneath a chandelier, formed by very tall, stately palms, the ceremony was performed by the Rev. George E. Spooner, pastor of Monumental M. E. Church. The bride, a pretty blonde, wore a very becoming gown of white satin, and carried a cluster of bride roses. She entered with her father, and by him was given away.

Directly following the wedding was a reception, only relatives and most intimate friends being present.

Swartz-Zimmerman.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RICHMOND, VA., June 18.—A beautiful home wedding occurred this morning at the residence of Mrs. Alice C. Zimmerman, when her daughter, Miss Janie Ray, became the bride of Mr. Hugh M. Swartz, of this place. The Rev. J. W. White was the officiating minister. The parlor was tastefully decorated with flowers and evergreens, and shaded lamps threw a soft illumination on the scene. The wedding music was played by Miss Mabel Boozie, a cousin of the bride.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. A. C. Zimmerman, and is very popular with a large circle of friends. The groom is a young business man of recognized ability in business circles. And Mrs. Swartz left on the noon train for a trip to Eastern and Northern cities and Niagara Falls.
